The Court at the admission stage made the following:

ORDER:

The point involved in these writ petitions is whether the respondents have refused to supply stocks to the petitioners during the subsistence of the licence period.

The petitioners claim to have been appointed as Fair Price Shop dealers. Proceedings were initiated against them under Section 6-A of the Essential Commodities Act (for short 'the Act') with certain allegations.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Pleader for Civil Supplies.

Initiation of proceedings under Section 6-A of the Act by itself does not entail any suspension or cancellation of authorization of a Fair Price Shop Dealer. At the most, it may constitute a ground, in case the appointing authority intends to take action. Unless specific orders are passed by the appointing authority, either suspending or cancelling the authorization, the dealer cannot be denied the benefit of supply of essential commodities.

Therefore, the writ petitions are disposed of, directing that the respondents shall ensure supply of essential commodities to the petitioners for distribution, as long as the authorization is in force. There shall be no order as to costs.
